

Civitan Park opened in 1997, and since then it has become Dalton's most popular place to walk. A trip around this track is .375 miles = 8 laps for 3 miles. In addition to the walking track, the park has a playground and picnic facilities. This facility was made possible by a donation from the Dalton Civitan club.